Use this checklist to help you cut your 2025 taxes

Getting ahead financially is easier if you keep your taxes as low as the law allows. Use this checklist of deductions, credits and tax strategies as a starting point for your 2025 tax planning. Check the items you think may apply to you. Then get the details you need to turn these ideas into tax savings for 2025.

- ☐ Hold appreciated investments long enough (over 1 year) to get favorable long-term capital gain treatment.
- ☐ Consider donating appreciated securities to charity instead of selling the securities and paying the tax.
- ☐ Keep accurate, up-to-date records on reinvested dividends to reduce taxes when stock or mutual fund shares are sold.
- ☐ Invest in tax-efficient mutual funds.
- ☐ Compare after-tax returns on investment alternatives such as municipal bonds vs. corporate bonds.
- ☐ Properly manage investments in tax-deferred vs. taxable accounts.
- ☐ Consider a tax-deferred exchange instead of selling a property and buying another.
- ☐ Net gains and losses during the year to minimize taxable gains.
- ☐ If the extra 3.8% tax on investment income will apply to you, consider strategies to minimize it.

- ☐ Make gifts in 2025. You're allowed to give up to $19,000 tax-free to as many individuals as you like.
- ☐ Review your will and other estate planning documents in light of the current estate tax rules and changes to your personal situation.
- ☐ Check your beneficiary designations for needed updates.

Consider each of the following:

- ☐ Tax-free sale of your home.
- ☐ Tax credits for each dependent child.
- ☐ Roth IRA contributions for working children.
- ☐ $10,000 deduction limit for state, sales, income, and property taxes.
- ☐ The tax benefits for shared support of a parent.
- ☐ Marriage or divorce planning to minimize taxes.
- ☐ Paying Social Security and Medicare taxes on household employees to avoid penalties.
- ☐ If a family member becomes blind or disabled before age 26, investigate the tax benefits of establishing an ABLE account.
- ☐ Tax credit for new and used clean vehicles.
- ☐ Tax credit for energy efficient home improvements.

Review this if spending, saving or paying for education:

- ☐ Deduction up to $2,500 of student loan interest.
- ☐ American Opportunity Tax Credit for post-secondary education expenses.
- ☐ The Lifetime Learning Credit, which can help with post-secondary education expenses, including job-related courses.
- ☐ Education savings accounts to build tax-free college savings (income limits).
- ☐ Section 529 plans for tax-free college and K-12 tuition savings (no income limits).
- ☐ Education savings bonds for tax-free interest when used for college.
- ☐ Employer's educational assistance benefits; generally tax-free up to $5,250.
- ☐ Free Application for Federal Student Aid available for the 2026-2027 academic year.

- ☐ Expensing election for new or used business equipment purchased in 2025.
- ☐ Bonus depreciation available at 40% in 2025. This benefit is scheduled to decrease to 20% in 2026, and 0% in 2027.
- ☐ Tax credit for making your business more accessible to the disabled.
- ☐ Business operating losses can be carried forward to offset future taxable income.
- ☐ Deduction for home office expenses.
- ☐ Like-kind exchange to defer paying taxes when selling business real estate property.
- ☐ Deduction for retirement plan contributions.
- ☐ Tax credit up to $5,000 to cover administrative costs of starting a retirement plan.
- ☐ Deduction for self-employed health insurance premiums that taxpayer pays for self and family.
- ☐ Tax credit for providing child care facilities for employees.
- ☐ Tax credit for paying health insurance premiums for employees.
- ☐ Entity review to determine if current legal form of operating your business is still preferable.
- ☐ Understand how Qualified Business Income (QBI) deduction applies to you.
- ☐ Make a matching contribution to an employee's retirement account based on the employee's own student loan payments.

- ☐ Tax credit for daycare expenses for children under age 13, or for adult care for qualifying individuals, so that you (and your spouse if married) can work, seek work, or attend school.
- ☐ Earned income tax credit for lower-income workers.
- ☐ Employer reimbursement for work-related expenses. Examples of this include specialized work clothes, union or association dues and continuing education costs.
- ☐ Contribute to Health Savings Account or Flexible Spending Account if available.
